watch this. . .

During the spring of 1990, CHS was given a television for each room so that the student body could watch news via Channel 1. Every day from 9:20 to 9:35 we spent watching Ch. 1 as it brought us news from around the world. We were kept informed when war broke out in Saudia Arabia on Jan. 16, until it's cease fire was declared on Feb. 27. We on the Chieftain staff hope you will enjoy watching our version of Ch. 1: Ch. S!

Ramon Stallings grabs the camera's attention.

ISSUES

Each year more and more students find jobs to increase their money flow. Studies have shown that those students who have jobs also tend to do poorer in school than those students who do not work. Could this be because employers have these students work late hours, or right after school until late into the evening, cutting into time which should be spent studying? Students at CHS are no different. Many of our students find jobs and spend a lot of time working. This could be the reason they spend a lot of time sleeping in class, which supports the theory: Too much time at work, too little time concentrating on school work.

Dentse Duncan spent too much time studying last night. Thomas McLaurin and Alex Serrano have the same thing in mind to catch up on their z's. Jackie Von Ogden cat naps between studying. Sydney Jordan relaxes in class. Kayana Dilosa and La Tonya Gardner are catching up on their rest.

The Heat is on...

When school begins and ends each year, we experience heatwaves. With temperatures reaching the 90's, students and teachers seek the coolest, easiest way to cool down. Some classes end up in the auditorium where it is air-conditioned. Those students and teachers who remain in the classrooms rely on fans to keep cool. However, the fans in the rooms don't always cool the entire class, so a few students this year elected to bring their own fans.

Christine Miller and Joyce Sharp try to stay cool while doing their math assignment. Tim West takes a break from his English assignment.

School is not the only place we have FUN!

Tamara Breit, Christy Jackson, and Angle Ortiz portray characters from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" for Ms. Green's sophomore English class. Sarah Moshinsky and Dawn Komoscar are also ancient Romans from the time of Caesar. Robbie Dillingham has reason to be proud as he stands next to the excellent painting he created outside Mr. Prohl's room. Michael Beehn very carefully and with much concentration puts the finishing touches on his painting.

"What's your baby's name?"

Mrs. Whitcomb's Child Development class had to carry around five pound flour sacks dressed as babies to demonstrate the great demand babies put on everyday life. All students were to give the baby a name and take the baby from classroom to classroom. If a "parent" wanted to go somewhere without the child, she had to find a babysitter.

Caryn Slade beams with pride as she looks at her baby. Carrie Palo is checking in with Mom Mary McMunn and baby. Melissa Skinner tries to put her child to sleep after feeding her.

Meet the Challenge

Ms. Green's yearbook staff and Ms. McCray's humanities class took a field trip to a challenge course. The course was to challenge students to take risks, to rely on others, and to depend on themselves to accomplish their goals. All involved learned something about themselves and the others involved.

Ramon Stallings and Dave Schubert help Kelly Frey climb the 12 foot wall. Jackie Ramirez shows her trust in the others. Ms. McCray is cheered on by the group as she attempts to swing to the other side. The group watches Dave Schubert as he prepares to get the needed rope for the challenge.

SOMETHING EXTRA

Ice the Devils

Throughout the week of September 25th, lots of Homecoming events were going on all around us. The hall decorating contest, which got the school red, white and Indian-covered, was won by the sophomores. The exciting powder puff football game was won by Mr. Prohl's team. The only non-competitive event, the pep rally, was enjoyed by all. Maritza Colon, Candice Jimerson, Catina Valentine, and Precious Vargas were nominees for Homecoming Queen. The nominees for King were Art Fowler, Dave Schubert, Alex Serrano, and Ramon Stallings. Ramon and Precious were crowned King and Queen.

The royal couple, Precious Vargas and Ramon Stallings, share a dance. Candice Jimerson, Precious Vargas, Maritza Colon and Catina Valentine are members of the Homecoming Court. Precious Vargas receives congratulations from the cheerleaders after being crowned Queen. Doug Richardson escorts Catina Valentine across the field.

Turnabout fun for all

"Make it last forever" was this year's theme for the annual turnabout dance. Turnabout is sponsored by the band with the help of some Warriorettes and Mrs. Meyers.

Corey Wabington and his date enjoy listening to the music. Carrie Barrett and Jimmy Jones relax after a turn on the dance floor.

Anna Toledo and Jacob Schaefer look for a good movie to attend after the dance. David Willis seems to to enjoy dancing alone. Latanya Gardner dances the night away with some friends.

Chorus: row 1: Melissa Cullum, Denise Rubalcava, Kim Stewart, Angie Powers, Lou Velasquez, Malissa Smith, Lynn Salinas, and Carolyn Pavey. row 2: Jayne Schneegas, Tina Stephen, April Stacy, Sherry Rixie, Cindy Duszynski, Kendra Shumary, Lou Spradlin, Kim Craven, and Stephanie Moore. row 3: Corey Wabblington, Vernon Doom, Michelle Ferguson, Julie Watson, Tanya Murphy, Debbie Anderson, Teresa Benson, Carrie Palo, and Mr. Velasco. row 4: Brian Meyer, Mike Schiller, and Chad Modglin.

Spring Concert

The 4th and 5th hour chorus classes gathered together to perform their last concert of the year on Thursday, May 9th. The solos were sung between the group songs and Fernando Gonzalez led us into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Both laughter and tears were displayed by the classes, especially by the graduating seniors. The girls scream as Elvis (Mike Schiller) pulled out a scarf. Brenda Beller gives her all during her solo performance.

The Second Annual King of Hearts Dance was sponsored by the Spanish Club. The dance was held February 23, in the school's cafeteria. The cafeteria was decorated by the Spanish Club with balloons, streamers, stars, a pinata, and a heart-shaped entry way. Andy Trevino and Maritza Colon were voted King and Queen of Hearts.

King and Queen of Hearts, Andy Trevino and Maritza Colon pose with the pinata. Benjamin Woods can go really low. The Queen of Hearts gives the limbo a try. (pg. 21) Rochelle Svast sees how low she can go. Laurie Moeson and Woody Bruce share a romantic dance. Denise Grant dances with herself. Corey Wabbington and Benjamin Woods congratulate the King of Hearts.

CHS Spirit

Sectional Spirit Week was well participated in this year. The week (Feb. 25) began with Pajama Day. Tuesday, the students wore red and white and attended a pep rally to get the team ready for a victory over Highland. Sports Day, Ethnic Day, and Warrior Day rounded out the week.

A. Ms. Korellis went all out for Sports Day and dressed up in full snorkeling gear.

B. Mr. Borlick shows what a proud Warrior he is on Warrior Day.

C. Cindy Mose is also being a very proud warrior.

D. Dana Robbins out does her friend C.C. Gonzales by wearing all red, white, and her share of ribbons.

E. Beryl Jenkins displays pride in her African heritage and Chris Bajmakovich is dressed in traditional Macedonian clothing on Ethnic Day.

STUDENT COUNCIL BEAUTIFIES

On Saturday, June 1, 1991 Mrs. Korellis and some of the student council members cleaned up around the school. Kim Kasarda, Samantha McBride, Allison Stump, and Tabitha Fanning were among those that helped plant flowers, put down fertilizer, and remove dead bushes.

After removing dead bushes, Mrs. Korellis and Allison Stump work hard at planting new bushes. Kim Kasarda also works hard planting bushes. Tabitha Fanning and Samantha McBride plant flowers at the school's main entrance.

Always and Forever

Prom, the dressiest, most important dance of the year, was held at the Wicker Park Social Center on April 27, 1991. The theme "Always and Forever" was appropriate because, hopefully, prom goers would always remember this special night. Shannon Peterson and Eddie Fowler were crowned Queen and King, respectively.

After the Prom...

The day after the prom, many prom-goers went to Great America. After a long, fun night, the students had a long, fun day while riding roller coasters and enjoying the beautiful day.

Kristy VonOgden, Shawn Toczek, Stacy Rhor and Kim Kasarda show how wet you can get on the water rides. Jamie Westbrooks, Denise Grant and Kim Hinshaw pose at Great America's entrance. Chris Bundy laughs as Nick Zakula and James Stevens show off their physique in Great America's parking lot. Nick Skomac got drenched on a water ride.

Class of '91 Was Hot June 9!

The class of 1991 graduated on June 9. Denise Duncan was Valedictorian and Candice Jimerson was the Salutatorian. Though the graduates joyfully tossed their caps, there were many tears as the class realized that high school days were over. Good Luck and Congratulations to the Class of 1991.

Denise Duncan delivers her enlightening speech. Candice Jimerson gives her serious yet humorous speech. Graduates listen intently as the speeches are delivered.

Allison Stump delivers her speech about the class's history. David Schubert starts off the ceremony. Precious Vargas gathers with her friends Alex Serrano, Andy Trevino, David Schubert, Doug Richardson, and Kevin Cox. Mike Schiller shows how thankful he is to graduate.

The graduates joyfully toss their caps off at the end of the ceremony. Melissa Skinner is proud to be part of the class of 1991.

Seniors Honored

Allison Stump is all smiles after winning the award for friendliest senior. Kayanna Dilosa proudly displays her trophy for best eyes. Randall Pena is honored with a scholarship to a mechanics school.

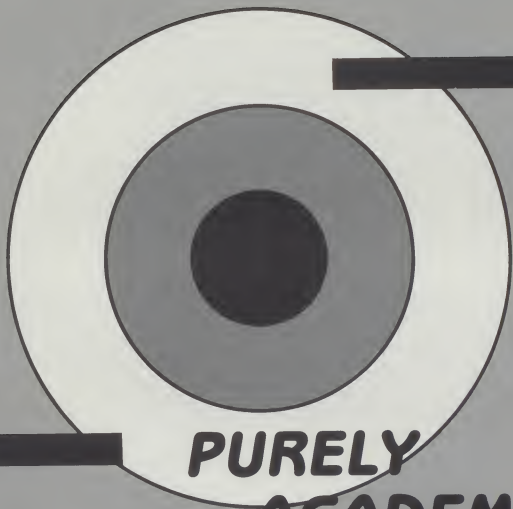

Kim Edwards shows why she was voted the best dressed girl of the senior class. Ron Tillman presents Maritza Colon with her award for best legs. After receiving the award for the most memorable laugh, Doug Richardson laughs and succeeds to make all on hand laugh.

Drama

ACADEMIC

Bloodmobile

Once again, Calumet Students lent their veins for a good cause: the annual blood drive. This year's drive was held in the wrestling room on March 19. The number of pints of blood donated was the same as last year. The Student Council, led by Mrs Korellis, hopes for an even better turnout next year.

Student Council members check people in. The donors, Jeremy Metz and Alex Skomac fill out forms before getting their blood tested, like Greg Chandler. After that, the donor, here, Vince Williamson, gets his temperture taken and is weighed by Precious Vargas. Jacob Shaefer gets his blood presssure taken directly before giving blood.

Visits Calumet

Mr. Wadkins donates his blood. Eliza Reid is relaxed as the needle goes in her vein. Dave Schubert hands a worker a full bag of blood.

BRITISH LIT REVISITED

Ms. McCray's senior English classes read Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales" and Shakespeare's MacBeth. Once again, Ms. McCray assigned her students the creative project of acting out scenes from each. Every year, the students have made some excellent costumes and this year was no exception.

The second hour English class is in full Canterbury costume. Doug Richardson is a tale-telling knight. Three witches (Allison Stump, Tanya Rust and CeCe Gonzales) add ingredients to their brew. Candice Jimerson portrays Lady MacBeth.

SHALL WE DANCE?

Ms. McCray's Humanities class was assigned a challenging midterm. They were to, as Humanities' student Steven Paul said, "Incorporate a significant theme that we studied in the Humanities text ... in a dance coordinated on our own." Pictured are the students performing their well choreographed dances.

The class smiles happily now that they've finished their dance. Jackie Ramirez uses an African poem to create her dance. Kathy Vandewater's dance reflects the sadness of death. Steven Paul based his dance on envy. David Schubert illustrated the point of "Man's Pursuit of Happiness" in his dance.

Mr. Miller relaxes between coffee breaks. Mrs. Triana checks for students who owe book rental. Mrs. Traicoff counts money for the night's football game. Mr. Manning makes a list before checking it twice.

Mr. Higgenbotham gives Jennifer Kluga some much needed advice on colleges. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McCain discuss a student's absences. Just for the record, Mrs. Gulley goes over some ISTEP scores. Sue asks Kristine Millspaugh to go get a student from class. The cooks show their Halloween spirit before mixing up the day's brew.

Teacher Of The Year

Mr. Traicoff, who teaches health and Current Issues, was the proud recipient of this year's Teacher of the Year award. Mr. Traicoff has taught at Calumet for 21 years and has always taken great interest in his students. He was praised in the Post Tribune this year for "making learning fun in an educational and thought provoking way." In a Chicago broadcast, Mr. Traicoff stated that he was both "honored and humbled" to accept his award.

Mr. Traicoff tries to prove a point to health student Andrea Hernandez. Mr. Traicoff rushes into his Current Issues class ready to discuss the day's lecture notes.

We now leave behind us the overcrowded hallways, rather boring classes, and loud underclassmen. We journey from our school with a sense of responsibility and a vast array of knowledge. From CHS we've not only obtained wisdom but also a unique sense of style, and maybe even a touch of class.

With curiosity and fascination we look to the past. In it we see the amazing power of the human, the vital mistakes of civilization, and the great possibilities for future generations. We are now the future generation living the history of the past.

With the completion of the graduation ceremony, four years of high school efforts will have come to an end. Memories of championship games, impossible finals, and lasting friendships will be pressed into the pages of history. The future awaits the arrival of the new graduates as we await the arrival of our future.

Mrs. Gulley seems to be saying to Cheryl Hager, "Here's the deal." Doug Richardson receives help from Ms. Markovich. Sonia Clark, you're not alone; everyone knows Ms. McCray's work is a killer. There's no way you'll be a teacher John O'Bannon.

Say, "Cheese" Steven Paul. Stop brown-nosing Eliza Reid. Don't worry Brenda Beller, we all have had trouble with our lockers!

Tonya Taylor wants to know what hour this is and if she's in the right room. "Hey Chelle Brinkley! Look over here. No, this way!" Ray Mata, next time try to give a little more effort to your homework. Ayanna Dilosa gives everyone a study tip: "If you don't know the answer, fake it!"

No, it's not the Three Stooges, it's the infamous quartet of Christine Metcalfe, Nick Skomac, Mike Schiller, and Debbie Anderson. Rachel Rattray, everyone's life saver!

Who makes the decision?

During our senior year we are pressured by friends, teachers, counselors, and parents to make a major decision in our lives: College plans! Included in these plans is which college to attend and how to get the money to get there. Every year our college dreams become harder to picture because of the high costs. But wait! What if you don't want to go to college? Maybe you're going to get a job or go to a vocational school.

Every year you'll leave Calumet well prepared for your new endeavor. Hopefully, you'll look back at your days fondly and remember the students and teachers that made your years here so memorable. Whatever the case, with luck

Varsity football ends strong

The football team struggled early in the season but came on at the end. For the first time in school history, the team went into the sectional championship game only to lose. The young players and new offense installed by Mr. Bunda have the football program looking good.

Ramon Stallings breaks from the defense. The Warriors line up to take the snap. The Warriors pace the sidelines as the offense makes its move up the field. After scoring, the Warriors kick off to their opponent.

The JV girls Volleyball team didn't have a great season, but overall it was a learning experience. The team will be back next year to improve over this year's performance.

Volleyball team plays hard

The girls volleyball team played as hard as a team could, but were always on the short end of the score.

Candice Jimerson was voted the team's MVP as well as best spiker. Kelly Frey received the best server award, and Kelly Bewley won the best setter award. Precious Vargas was the best defensive player.

Candice Jimerson reaches to hit the ball. Kelly Bewley dives to save a serve. Precious Vargas sets up a teammate for a spike. Beryl Jenkins spikes it over the net.

Cross Country is successful

The Cross Country team had an average year. The team, which was composed of only two seniors, did all right for a young team. The runners experienced more ups than downs. Receiving the prestigious MVP award for the Warriors was Adam Hutchinson. Andy Trevino received a four year varsity award, while Mike Beehn received a three year varsity award. Mike was also awarded the Mental Attitude Award.

FROSH & J.V. BASEBALL

The Frosh and the J.V. teams both fought hard all season, but the lack of experience caught up to them. Experience was gained and the young Warriors have a bright future.

GOLFERS UP TO PAR

Mike Perry lines up his putt. Mike Schiller keeps an eye on his drive. Richie Botts watches his putt head for the hole. Richie sets up his chip shot.

Each golfer worked hard throughout the season and was rewarded by seeing his own improvement each meet. Mike Perry was voted most improved; Mike Schiller was given the mental attitude award; and Dean Botts was elected most valuable golfer.

Girls Softball

The girls softball team had another disappointing year, winning only one game. The team was very competitive, which they proved by only being shutout four times the whole year. The team will only be losing two players to graduation.

Boys' Track

The track team was hampered by key injuries and illnesses all season, which prevented strong team performances in meets. Fortunately, they had many strong individual efforts to make them competitive.

Mike Beehn became the Lake Suburban Conference champion in the 800 meter run. He was also sectional champion in the 800 meter run and qualified for the regionals. Mike was also named to the first team all conference runner in the 800. Joe Britt was named to the second team all conference team. Teammate Keith Jones became Frosh/Soph indoor LSC champion in the 200 meter dash.

Other highlights included Craig Regans becoming LSC champion in the long jump and Adam Hutchinson won the 3200 meter run at the Griffith Relays. Adam also was the recipient of the William R. Cheever Memorial Two Miler plaque for the second year in a row.

At the awards banquet, Anthony Bolden received the most improved award, Mike Beehn won the Mental Attitude award, and Thomas McLaurin received the most competitive award.

Dovell Wilson wheels around to release the discus. Ramon Stallings hands off to teammate Thomas McLauren as they practice the 400 relay. Anthony Bolden stretches out to get the maximum distance in the long jump. Ron Tilman concentrates as he prepares to release the discus.

Yearbook staff members are always busy finding just the right pictures for the many memories that were created during the year. Each year we depend on you, the student, to help make the yearbook better than the year before. We try to include all the events; however, we do miss a few things.

Journalism Turns On!

With the addition of Ch. 1 in all the classrooms, the journalism class received added responsibilities. In addition to printing the school newspaper, the class began televising daily announcements on Ch.S.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
